NUMBER 16.

SPLENDID SHOWING.

The Lexington Banking & Trust Company, Short and Market streets, Lexington, Ky., which began business February 1, had at the close of business February 15 deposits aggregating $605,000, a gain of more than 50 per cent with 2,290 depositors. This institution in addition to transacting a general banking business, settles estates, acts as administrator, executor, guardian, trustee and receiver and loans money on real estate, personal or private security, having the largest stock of any combined Bank & Trust Company in the State, and solicits accounts of banks, individuals and corporations.

The board of directors is composed of the leading business men in Lexington and Fayette, Bourbon, Scott, Woodford, Jessamine and Clark counties. The resources of this strong financial institution, aggregating $1,257,000, managed by officers and directors who are experienced, conservative and far-seeing, insures to its patrons that confidence that rightly belongs to one of the strongest financial institutions in the country. See advertisement in another column.

OLDEST CONFEDERATE DIES.

Dr. Alexander H. Ball, aged 96 years died at Maysville Wednesday. He was an ex-Confederate soldier and was thought to be the oldest one living at the time of his death. He was the father of Judge Garrett Wall, ex-Senator, and a brother of Mrs. Judge Opperman, of Mt. Sterling. His sister, Mrs. Amanda Fleming, died several months ago, aged 97 years. He was a surgeon under the command of Capt. Gano, serving under the famous Confederate cavalry raider, John Morgan during the Civil War.

SINGERS AND DANCERS.

Bourbon's Black Blitzen on March 1st at the Opera House.

This troupe is composed of an excellent quartette, eight buck and wing dancers and the champion clog dancers of Kentucky, besides a number of other first-class artists.

TO HAVE NEW COURT HOUSE.

The historic Courthouse at Harrodsburg will soon be a thing of the past. The grand jury, composed of twelve men of the most conservative and substantial men of Mercer county, in a rather sensational report to Circuit Judge Bell condemned the present county buildings and recommended the erection of a new courthouse. There is now $19,000 in the county treasury, and with a little effort it can soon be built. This famous old building has been the scene of many celebrated trials, and bears the signs of bloody personal encounters. The people will welcome the passing of these mementoes and their memories.

HIGH SCHOOL CELEBRATION.

There was a large and appreciative audience of our citizens, yesterday afternoon, present in the Chapel at the High School to witness the exercises in honor of Washington's birthday. The program was very interesting and reflected not only credit upon the pupils but upon their teachers. Paris can justly feel proud of its High School, for under the admirable management of Superintendent J. A. Sharon it has forged to the front and now ranks with the very best public schools in Kentucky. The following is the program rendered, and we regret the lack of space to make special mention of each individual number as deserved:

Opening Selection—Vocal solo; Misses Victoria Redmon and Nellie Long. Declamation—Bruce Adair. Reading—Miss Dorothy Talbott. Music—Mandolin; Sam Shanker and Dorothy Talbott. Recitation—Miss Cora Link. Declamation—Bower Ratcliff. Reading—Miss Gertrude Earlywine. Declamation—Miss Jessie Crisp. Chorus—High School; "Sweet and Low," and "Autumn Rain." "Red, White and Blue,"—By entire school.

DEATHS.

There were five deaths at Maysville Wednesday in twelve hours. Mrs. Amanda Mitchell, aged eighty-two; W. T. Kirk, aged forty-six; George R. Humphreys, aged seventy-four; Clyde Haley, aged twenty-four; Geo. W. Smith, aged sixty.

MARRIAGES.

Mr. G. Hanley Nippert, of Cincinnati, and Miss Minnie Dykes, of Richmond, were united in marriage in Cincinnati Wednesday evening. The groom is the oldest son of Mr. Geo. Nippert, formerly of this city, and a grandson of Mr. P. Nippert. He is twenty-four years of age, and a most promising young business man. This is Miss Dykes' second marriage. She was married in January, 1903, to Prof. William L. Ambler, of Cincinnati. After a few months they separated, she securing a divorce and being restored to her maiden name. She is twenty-two years of age, and one of Kentucky's handsomest young women, and is prominent throughout the State as a singer.

County Clerk Paton yesterday issued a marriage license to Rev. R. B. Wilson and Miss Elsie Matson, both of this county.

Dangers of Defective Plumbing!

Defective plumbing permits the entrance into the house of sewer gas bearing germs or contagious disease to which the human system readily succumbs. Sewer gas is not necessarily generated in the sewer, but is frequently created in the plumbing system within the home and enters the apartments through defective fixtures. DON'T WANT AN INVESTIGATION.

Judge Barry, representative from Lyon and Marshall, threw a small size bomb in the administration menagerie down at Frankfort the other day by offering a resolution to inquire into the affairs of the State. These are the charges announced in his speech when presenting the resolution:

"We have the right to know what public servants are doing. We want this investigation and if everything is all right, well and good. The resolution looks to the cutting down of expenses. We will show that thousands of dollars have been paid in salaries for services never rendered. We will show that there are men employed by the state who are getting $150 per month and who are compelled by an ante-election contract to send $50 to some other man at home who is doing no work for the state at all. There are other men who have paid hundreds of dollars for positions they are now holding and who were unable to get their positions until they had paid over that money."

We have it straight that a committee of Administration men were appointed. Judge Barry, who by the way is a staunch Democrat, was added to the committee. He tried in every way to get the members to meet, but failed. He then offered another resolution naming a number of anti-administration men to be added to the committee. The house objected and he was forced to let the administration Speaker name the additional committeemen. The committee is now composed of eleven Beckham-Hager-Haley men, and this of course settles the matter. The committee will never meet and there will be no investigation.

This is a period of investigation and reform and by the Administration trying to smother this matter only injures the Democratic party. It will be remembered that every effort was made to investigate the office of Dick Tate several years before his exposure and flight, and the same tactics were then used by "friendly" members of Tate to smother the investigation as are being used now to smother this investigation asked for by Judge Barry. We all know what happened then.

Now, mind you, we do not suspect that any State official is now a defaulter, but there are such extravagances going on at Frankfort and practices being indulged that will never see the light of day unless the Legislature appoints a committee that will do its duty.

If nothing can be found going on worthy of criticism, the powers that be and the Democratic party will be all the stronger. If there are abuses that can be corrected now by the representatives of the Democratic party, the party of course will be made the stronger. It is all bosh about furnishing campaign matter for Republicans, we look at it in a different light, if abuses are being practiced under cover in the Democratic party, let Democrats expose them and let Democrats correct them and you leave the Republicans without a charge to make.

Since the above was put in type Judge Barry has resigned from the Committee, as well he might, for it was the waste of time on his part after sizing up the Committee. In his withdrawal speech he said:

"When it seemed that nothing could be accomplished by the committee appointed, I thought it would be a good idea to add four new members. I then prepared a resolution naming four additional committeemen. My intentions, however, became known to the administration, and when I arrived in the House and saw General Haley and Mr. Tandy and the powers behind the throne marshalled in battle array, they had thrown out the tentacles and captured my friend from Louisville, Tommy Drewry, whom I love still but at whom I am deeply grieved.

"The man who goes against this machine here is like one butting his head against a brick wall."

"Are men thus to be hauled around by a halter?" he asked, "God forbid."

BLOCKING LEGISLATION.

There is no doubt but that the Administration forces are blocking legislation at Frankfort, and for no other reason than for their own selfish motives. Beckham and Hager are against any appropriation, no matter how worthy, until they get the $250,000 appropriation for the Capitol into their hands. If they allow other appropriations to be passed they are afraid the members will think too larger amounts have already been voted to other things and the Capitol appropriation had better be left over. The Administration gang is composed of a shrewd lot of schemers as has ever been together at Frankfort. They think the people are not on to them, but wait, the time is sure to come when Beckham, Hager, Haley & Co. will be cut loose and set afloat in an airship, never to be heard of again. The only fear is that this unscrupulous corporation of corruption will be the undoing of the Democratic party in Kentucky before the rope is cut that will let them go.

IT ANSWERED THE PURPOSE.

Further agitation in the newspapers of the scandals unearthed by the New York Legislature Investigating Committee in the management of the big Insurance Companies can no longer serve the purpose to bring about a correction of abuses, and we agree with the Lexington Gazette when it says, "the remedies have already been applied and publicity has done whatever else was needed. Further agitation must result in permanent injury to the Insurance Companies, which would entail of course, permanent loss upon the holders of policies. Amid the charges that have been made and the doings that have been exposed, one is apt to forget the hopeful fact, that with all that has been done, the stability of the Insurance Companies themselves has not been affected in the slightest degree. They are as substantial today as they ever were, and their management has been placed upon a safer and sounder basis. Those who invest today, in life insurance policies, are better protected than they were before."

ONLY A DREAM.

Mr. Gaines, of Tennessee, found himself with a large task on his hands last week in attempting to get an estimate on the probable cost of the plan of military and naval equipment which the government proposes to establish in the Philippines. Persistent questioning however, during the consideration of appropriations for defense served to show the tremendous scale of fortifications proposed for our island possessions. The fortifications of Manila Bay it was stated will probably cost $2,000,000, those at Subig Bay over $1,000,000, and those at Guantanamo $2,500,000 making a total of $5,500,000 for those three points alone. The expenditure of so large a sum for such strong fortifications as are planned would seem to indicate that an early independence of the Philippines is only a dream, since the government would hardly sanction such fortifications were they to be turned over at an early date to a nation bound to us by no racial ties whatever.

CALL 179.

REGARDING A WELL-KNOWN KENTUCKIAN.

The following news item from the Seattle (Wash.) Times, wired from San Francisco, has been read with interest throughout Central Kentucky. It concerns the lamented W. S. Hume, of Richmond, who was lost in the wreck of the ill-fated Valencia, and will be heard with surprise by his many friends over the State:

“Miss Dell Carlos was a bride-to-be until the Valencia went to her doom. Now the young woman mourns as dead the one she was to have wed, for he was a passenger on the vessel—a passenger who left the side of his affianced with the fear that he would never return.

“W. S. Hume, of Kentucky, and Miss Dell Carlos were engaged to be married. It was with a heavy heart and a foreboding of impending disaster that the young man left this city for an ocean voyage to the North coast. The young woman on the contrary was happy, with no thought of a tragic ending of her happiness. Seven months ago Mr. Hume came to this city from the Blue Grass State. At the Monarch Hotel in this city he met Miss Carlos, and the two pledged their troth.

“Business called Hume North, but he delayed his departure. At last he made up his mind to go, and fate deceived him into taking passage on the ill-fated Valencia. But even on the eve of his departure the young man was impressed with a feeling of impending danger. Worried by a presentiment of death, he called on his affianced and told her of his feeling of dread. She laughed at his fears, and he embarked on board the vessel.

“‘He did not want to go,’ Miss Carlos said. ‘He felt that something was going to happen and he could not be convinced to the contrary. Mr. Hume was very superstitious. Several weeks ago he called on a fortune teller and she informed him that he was going on an ocean voyage and that it would be a very prosperous trip.

“On the day before the Valencia sailed he came to me and said that he had a presentiment that something was going to happen. But he recalled the prediction of the fortune teller and laughed at his own fears. However, he seemed possessed of that fear, and on the morning of sailing he came to me again. He once more related his fears and said that he might never return to me. Then he was gone.”

JUST LIKE A WOMAN.

The Midway Clipper says: “A Scott county woman whose husband had just been put into the hearse is said to have told the procession to drive on as she would have to stay at home and churn because the cream had been sour for two days. It seems likely that she will recover from her awful grief and mental anguish.”

ORIGIN OF “SO LONG.”

You have perhaps wondered how the expression “so long” came to be so generally used by the American people,” said a Columbia College lecturer the other day. “It is usually used in closing a conversation and is simple a form of “good-bye.” The Norwegians brought it to this country. In that land of the Midnight Sun “saa laenge” is the common form of farewell. It means the same as the “auf die diersehnen” of the German or the “au revoir” of the French. Among the early settlers of America were many Norwegians, and the phrase was picked up from them. They pronounce it with the g softened and accompany it by a wave of the hand.

AMUSEMENTS.

All who enjoy bright, clean comedy will be delighted to learn that The Herald Square Moving Pictures with a program brimming with the latest sparkling gems, are to be seen here next Monday night.

One beauty of a moving picture entertainment, and greatly in its favor is the fact that nerves are never tired by rasping voices, badly placed modulations, wrong inflections, mispronunciations and a thousand and one mannerisms that often mar an otherwise meritorious play, especially when a conceited novice gets into the limelight. That's one good reason why the Herald Square Moving Pictures have become so popular. Be sure to secure a good seat so you may spend a really enjoyable evening when these pictures are here.

ONE THING TO REMEMBER.

There is just one thing to remember, and that is the A. O. U. W. Bazaar at Odd Fellows Hall on March 5, 6 and 7, for the benefit of the Paris Hospital Fund. The committee in charge promise you three nights of amusement such as you never before experienced.

DID EXCELLENT WORK.

The fire department was called to Nichols & Pendleton's big three-story tobacco warehouse on South Main, Wednesday evening, about 9 o'clock to extinguish a fire that had gained considerable headway under the first floor of the building. The department did most excellent work in saving the building, and preventing a disastrous conflagration in that end of the town. The big warehouse was filled with tobacco, and was between Peed & Dodson's tobacco barn and Spears & Son's hemp factory.

BREAKS AN ARM.

'Squire J. W. Conway, of Riddles Mills while unloading hay at J. H. Fuhrman's stable yesterday, was in some manner caught by the grappling hook and thrown to the ground, receiving severe cut on side of head and his right arm broken near elbow.

GRAIN OF COFFEE CAUSES DEATH.

One grain of ordinary roasted coffee caused the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. David N. Ewing, near Danville, Tuesday. The child had been ill about two weeks and a consultation of three physicians resulted in treatment for pneumonia, without avail. The case was so mysterious that a post mortem was held, which revealed the cause. The child had swallowed a grain of coffee and the physicians, being unable to locate the trouble, death resulted.

SALE OF BEAUTIFUL MARE.

Shropshire Bros. sold to Sterrett & Hamilton, of Hot Springs, Va., their beautiful mahogany bay walk-trot and canter ladies mare, "Fannie Forster," named for their sister, Miss Fannie Shropshire.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse because of the uncertainty as to their harmless character, but is a medicine of known composition, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. The "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is in fact the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold through druggists, that does not contain alcohol and that too in large quantities. Furthermore, it is the only medicine for woman's special diseases, the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of some of these endorsements will be sent to any address, postage paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Don't forget that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for woman's weaknesses and delicate ailments, is not a patent or secret medicine, being the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated and graduated physician, engaged in the practice of his chosen specialty—that of diseases of women—that its ingredients are printed in plain English on every bottle-wrapper; that it is the only medicine especially designed for the cure of woman's diseases that contains no alcohol, and the only one that has a professional endorsement worth more than all the so-called "testimonials" ever published for other medicines. Send for these endorsements as above. They are free for the asking.

If you suffer from periodical, headache, backache, dizziness, pain or dragging down sensation low down in the abdomen, weak back, have disagreeable and weakening, catarrhal, pelvic drain, or are in distress from being long on your feet, then you may be sure of benefit from taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic.

PEOPLE SHOULD KNOW.

The Cynthia Deemerat says: "The Legislature should enact a law that every application for a pardon, or parole, before the application can be considered, be published in a newspaper in the county where the crime was committed, and the names of all the signers of the petition be published. A community has the right to know who the people are who would defeat the ends of justice by bringing back from the penitentiary, or releasing from jail or fines, men who have violated the law."

Miss Stella Hill has returned home after a pleasant visit to relatives in Riddles Mills.

Mr. Ernest Sidner has returned from a prospecting trip in Lincoln county.

Lost.—A day book between Jacksonville and J. L. Hill's. Finder please return to Geo. Estes or W. E. McKinney.

Mr. G. W. Estes has about finished stripping his crop of about 17,000 pounds of tobacco. This is considered the best crop in the neighborhood.

The sale of Mr. L. C. Ashcraft was well attended and stock, etc., sold well. Mules brought from $120 to $175; horses $80 to $170; corn in crib from $2.30 to $2.35; hogs from $5.85 to $5.90; sheep brought from $5.75 to $6.

Drs. Wallingford and Pogue removed a needle from the hip of Miss Pearl Williams. It had been imbedded in her hip for twelve years. She received the wound while at play. The needle was removed in two pieces and had turned black. A small part of the thread was in the eye of the needle and was well preserved.

LOST.

A pocket folding Kodak, in leather case. Lost between the home of J. Q. Ward, near town and Courthouse. Leave News office and receive reward.

MAPLEHURST STOCK FARM.

In another column will be found the advertisement of the stallions of Maplehurst Stock Farm. Everyone who is interested in fine blooded stock should read the advertisement.

Mr. W. A. Bacon proprietor of Maplehurst says his stallions are in the prime of condition and invites those interested to call at his place. The old reliable Jay Bird, who everyone knows is still at Maplehurst and the season price is $100. Baron Wilkes, Jr., with a record of 2:23, by Baron Wilkes 2:18 is being stood at $15 to insure. Jaymore, a grand breeder, 16 hands high and weighing 1,225 pounds, $15 to insure living colt. Dr. Sterling, one of the very best jacks in the State is also owned by Mr. Bacon. Dr. Strong is a fine animal, 16 hands high and the season price is only $10.00. Mr. Bacon gave $800 for this animal in Fleming county and had the pick of a bunch of 20 of the finest jacks that ever left that county.

A visit to Maplehurst will be of interest to any horse man.

"DO IT TO-DAY!"

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it TO-DAY—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

LAND TO BE SOLD.

State Revenue Agent, J. F. Hawn, of Barbourville, has received far-reaching orders in regard to selling land on which the redemption period has expired. The order applies to all land sold and bid in for State and county taxes for 1880 to 1903, the aggregate amount involved reaching into the millions. Practically all Eastern Kentucky is included in the order, and among the tracts of land are a number of timber and mineral acreages.

THE KENTUCKIAN-CITIZEN'S JUBILEE.

PERSONALS.

Our esteemed contemporary, The Kentuckian-Citizen, on yesterday, celebrated its one hundredth year of its continuous publication by a reception at its commodious quarters, from 1:30 till 4 o'clock. A large number of guests, both ladies and gentlemen, called to offer congratulations to Mr. Bruce Miller, the present editor and owner.

The Kentucky Herald in 1807 was converted into the Western Citizen by Joel Reid Lyle. The True Kentuckian was established in 1866 by John Givens Craddock, the first issue appearing on February 22 of that year. It was merged with the Western Citizen in 1886, since which time it has appeared under the present name, The Kentuckian-Citizen. Col. Craddock continued to conduct the paper till May, 1899, when he leased his entire plant to Mr. Miller, who afterwards purchased the outfit from his administrators.

Mr. Bruce Miller, the present editor and owner of The Kentuckian-Citizen, is the son of the late James H. Miller, of Millersburg, and a great-grandson of John Miller, who founded the town of Millersburg. In 1881 he entered the Bourbon News office as an apprentice under his uncle, the late Bruce Champ, and continued in his employ until Mr. Champ's death in 1892. Then till 1899 he was a partner of the late Walter Champ in conducting the News, when he leased the paper he now owns.

It will be seen that Mr. Miller has come up from the ground floor in the newspaper business, and no better equipped man in every sense can be found on the roster of Kentucky journalists than the name of Bruce Miller. He is a young man of fine business traits, which has been shown by him starting with nothing and now being the possessor of one of the best papers and best printing plants in the State. We are glad to have such an agreeable gentleman for a competitor, and sincerely wish that his future life will be crowned with the success he so richly deserves.

The reception was indeed an enjoyable occasion. The guests first entered the composing room, and were shown the workings of the new Simplex type-setting machine just installed. They were then escorted upstairs to one of the front rooms, where the punch bowl was presided over by Mrs. Bruce Miller, Mrs. R. K. McCarney, Miss Margaret Butler and Mrs. Nathan Bayless, Jr.

Then you were ushered into another room where a bowl of delicious soup was served; thence to another room where a sumptuous buffet luncheon was served—turkey, ham, salads, pickles, cheese, potato chips, celery, coffee, etc., etc.,

This was not all, by any means, for you were invited into another room, where the gentlemanly dispenser of everything that is good in the drinking line, Mr. Murray Higgins, was found at the sideboard awaiting your pleasure.

All in all, it was a grand success, and we were sorry when the leaving time arrived. If you were not there you missed the reception of the season, and that's all there is to it.

SECOND CHASE SUCCESSFUL.

After a second chase of several miles through the open country by Deputy Sheriff S. A. S. Thompson and W. F. Talbott the much wanted Emery Pore, of Robinson county, was captured. He escaped the officers last week, and being located again Wednesday he saw them coming and made for the woods. Mr. Thompson unhitched his horse from his buggy, and mounting him cleared fences like an old-time fox hunter until he overtook the fleet-footed Pore, who refused then to stop until Mr. Thompson fired his pistol twice as a reminder that the race was growing tiresome. Deputy Sheriff Letton took the prisoner to Mt. Olivet yesterday, where he was wanted on a number of charges.

CHECK FOR $40,000.

Following the unsuccessful attempt of the heirs to break the will of the late Mrs. S. P. Lees, of New York, Central University received Tuesday a check for $40,000 as an unconditional bequest. Of this, $15,000 will go to the S. P. Lees Institute, academy branch at Jackson, and $25,000 to the University here. By the same will several charitable institutions and Southern Presbyterian churches throughout the South are largely benefitted. During her life Mrs. Lees had been a staunch friend of old Central University in Richmond, giving largely from her means at various times.

The ball given by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers at Odd Fellows' Hall on Wednesday evening was a very enjoyable affair. The hall was beautifully decorated in red, white and blue streamers, which were caught in the middle of the room with a large Japanese fan dropping from the center. The Winchester Orchestra furnished the music. There were about one hundred guests present. Among those from a distance were Miss Pauline Sterzer and Mr. M. J. Kelley, Miss Clara Ney and Mr. F. Cichenlaub, Miss Margaret Williamson and Mr. Geo. Kornhoff, of Cincinnati; Mrs. J. J. Hodges, Miss Gosney, Mr. Scott Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Misses Nettie and Virgie Smith, of Covington; Miss Laura Elliott and Mr. T. L. Campbell, of Lexington.

Mr. H. A. Power attended the big tobacco fair at Maysville yesterday.

Mrs. James Batterton and Mrs. James Doty are visiting in Maysville.

Mrs. Welburn Reese, of Mason, is the guest of her sister, Dr. Lydia Pogue.

Miss Clay Croxton, of Clark, is the guest of Miss Lucy Buckner, in the country.

The grand march at Jolly Fellows' German this evening will be promptly at 9 o'clock.

Misses Minnie and Annie Conley, of Ludlow, are guests of Mrs. Geo. McWilliams.

Frank Saloshin has returned to his home in Covington, accompanied by his niece, Miss Rosa Margolin.

Mr. A. D. Miller, the agreeable and bright editor of the Richmond Climax, was in the city yesterday and paid us a pleasant call.

Mrs. Robert Goggin attended a reception given by her sister, Mrs. J. T. Lail, of Cynthiana, Wednesday, in honor of Mrs. Aaron Ashbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart Roberts and Miss Margaret Ferguson left last evening for their new home at Birmingham, Ala., much to the regret of a large circle of friends.

St. Catherine's Alumnae held a reception yesterday from 6 to 9 at St. Catherine's Academy, at Lexington. Mrs. T. F. Roche, of this city, is one of the alumnae.

L. C. Bunnell and family left Tuesday for Oklahoma City, where he will locate. He is a brother-in-law of A. S. Trimble, of North Middletown, and E. L. Harris, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Webb will go to Cynthiana today as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lail. Mr. Webb is Eminent Commander of the Cynthiana Commandery of Knights Templar, which holds a meeting this evening. His commandery has rented Mrs. Barlow's residence, in rear of Courthouse, for the May Conclave in this city.

Rev. T. E. Holliday, of Wooster, O., is the guest of his uncle, Mr. J. W. Holliday. He is a missionary of the Presbyterian Church in India, having just returned from that country, where he has been since 1889. He is taking a years' vacation at his old home in Ohio, and will return to his missionary work in India when his year is up.

Mr. Henry Butler entertained very delightfully Wednesday afternoon with a six-hand euchre party in honor of her guest, Mrs. Sperry, of Louisville, and Mrs. John Stuart Roberts. The house was beautifully and artistically decorated with flags of all sizes in honor of the day, other decorations were baskets and pots of pretty green plants. The games were marked on tallies decorated with small flags held with red, white and blue ribbons.

A delightful luncheon was served, after which unique little hatchets were given all the guests as souvenirs. Three handsome prizes were awarded. The guests prize, a silver call bell, was given Mrs. Sperry. The first prize, a hand painted plate, was won by Mrs. B. M. Renick, after cutting with Mrs. Owen Davis. Miss Matilda Alexander and Mrs. Edith Alexander Bronston cut for second prize, the former winning. It was a very stylish water color picture. The guests were Mesdames D. B. Sperry, Jesse Turney, Catesby Woodford, Tom Buckner, Owen Davis, J. M. Hall, W. C. Ussery, John Stuart Roberts, Mary Ireland Davis, Amos Turney, George Stuart, Bismarck Frank, Frank M. Clay, Harry Clay, W. T. Brooks, B. M. Renick, J. S. Wallingford, Cordie Parker, Edith Alexander Bronston, Thompson Tarr, Walter Kennedy, Brice Steele, W. E. Board, Robert Goggin, James Duncan Bell, J. F. Ireland, Swift Champ, Fred Wallace, Tom Fisher, Louis Hooge, Wilburn Reese, James E. Clay, W. R. Scott, Clark Barnett, Hume Payne, Clay Howard, and Misses Kate Alexander, Mary Clay, Sallie Lockhart, Nan Wilson and Emma Scott.

BUSINESS MEN WHO SUCCEED.

The store that does not use printer's ink and plenty of it in this day and age will not get the business. Look over the advertising columns of any paper and you will see who does the very best business of the community. You will find that the advertising store is the one that does business for small profits and you will find there the latest styles and the freshest goods and receive the best treatment. Now go to the store that don't advertise and see what you find? Just the reverse to be sure, and what business they do get is overflow from the advertising store that cannot be taken of. Newspaper advertising is the cheapest and most efficient that can be done. In no other way can so many people be reached at so little expense. This mode of advertising has dodgers, circulars, fence signs and trees skinned a blocked and the people who read newspapers are usually intelligent cash buyers. Consequently, it behoves every merchant and business man to advertise. Advertise in your home paper first, last and all the time.

A LEVEL HEADED PARSON.

Just before the collection was taken up one Sunday morning a negro clergyman announced that he regretted to state that a certain brother had forgotten to lock the door of his chicken house the night before, and as a result in the morning he found that most of the fowls had disappeared. "I doan' want to be personal, bred'r," he added, "but I hab my s'picions as to who stole them chickens. I also hab reason fo' b'lievin' dat if I am right in dose s'picions dat pusson won't put any money in the plate which will now be passed around." The result was a fine collection; not a single member of the congregation feigned sleep. After the money was counted the old parson came forward. "I doan' want your dinners to be spoilt by wondering where that brudder lives who doan' lock his chickens up at night. Dat brudder doan' exist, mah friends. He was a parable gotten up fo' purpose of finance."

A STORY WITH A MORAL.

The following where a moral is clearly shown, is taken from an exchange, says the Adwriter: Recently a church congregation in a little Kansas town built a new church. To pay for it they were obliged to call on the merchants of the community for donations. The merchants responded liberally and $300 was raised from this source. The last man asked to subscribe was John Smith, a jeweler. "I will give you $20 if you will let me add something to the subscription list," he said. The permission was accorded him and he wrote at the foot of the list:

John Smith, jeweler, $20.00.

Sears, Roebuck & Co. 0.00

Montgomery, Ward & Co., 0.00.

The church people saw the point when the minister read from the pulpit the list of donors to the building fund, and since the dedication of the church there have been no mail orders sent out from that Kansas town.

JAPAN'S GREAT INDUSTRY.

Japan with a population of about 47,000,000, employs upwards of 3,600,000 persons in her fishery, fish curing, and aquatic industries, including profitable seaweed and seashell farms.

Great Britain and Ireland, with a population exceeding 45,000,000, do not employ 200,000 persons in these trades.

NOT AVAILABLE.

An auctioneer advertised on his office window for an assistant, and added a list of qualifications, which showed that he expected his new man to possess all the virtues.

Many people read the notice and turned away, but at last a more venturesome individual entered the office and informed the auctioneer that his brother was just the man for the job.

"What's your brother's line?" queried the auctioneer. "Is he quiet?"

"Oh, very."

"Used to stopping long in one place?"

"Rather. Sticks to one spot like glue."

"Never gets into trouble through meddling with other people's business?"

"Never."

"Wouldn't answer back if I called him all the hardest names I could think of?"

"He'd be as mum as a fish all the time."

"Jove he's the very man I want. Where is he now, this brother of yours?" eagerly inquired the auctioneer.

"Couldn't say with confidence," dryly responded the man as he headed toward the door. "He's been dead seventeen years."

LIQUID LITIGATION.

In Perak lawyers find no business, for a modified form of trial by ordeal decides all disputes. In the place of the legal practitioner, the pleader is a native boy, who is assigned to one or the other of the sides and is given a bamboo tube in which is sealed the pleading of the person or party whom he represents.

When all is ready two stakes are driven into the bed of the stream, and, by aid of a bamboo pole, the heads of the two boys are submerged at the same time.

By grasping the stakes they are enabled to remain under the water for quite a while after their natural inclination would bring them to the surface, but at last one of them gives in, and, releasing his hold upon the stake, comes to the air.

He is immediately seized and the tube he holds is cast aside. The other lad is lead to shore, his tube opened, and the document contained therein stands as the decision in the case.

So detrimental are alum baking powders considered, that in most foreign countries their sale is prohibited. In many States in this country the law compels alum powders to be branded to show that they contain this dangerous acid, while in the District of Columbia, Congress has prohibited the sale of all food that contains alum.

Alum baking powders are sold to consumers at from 10 cents a pound to 25 ounces for 25 cents, or 25 cents a pound, and when not branded may generally be distinguished by their price.

THE FAIR

Likable China at Likable
Prices.

Our China always deserves the adjective "likable." We take the utmost pains to procure the prettiest patterns the market affords, and no woman of taste can take a look through our Chinaware counters without being full of admiration for the beauty and grace of the designs with which our fancy China is adorned. And the prices are equally likable. They are always much below what you would expect such handsome patterns and nice qualities to sell for, and much below what would necessarily be asked by any store that did not, as THE FAIR does, import its own China. Of course, the prices tell little without a sight of the ware; but we cannot refrain from giving a few quotations:

Plain Plates—35c, 48c and 59c a set.

Handsome Decorated Plates—69c, 85c and 98c a set.

Bowls and Pitchers—98c a pair.

Meat Dishes—10c to 98c.

Vegetable Bowls—10c to 48c.

Pitchers—10c to $1,

and so on, at a similarly low range of prices all through the stock.

Everything is Open Stock. It is worth while to remember that all our China is of the "open stock" kind. You can build up a dinner set, dish by dish, from the same pattern, adding the pieces just as your means allow—and if you break a dish at any time you can readily get it. The "open stock" way of selling China is the only modern, progressive way; and is one of the mainstays of THE FAIR'S success.
